LISTENING CARD STORY

When I grow up, I'll either work with animals, grow vegetables, or sell flowers. I don't know which job, yet. Maybe I'll be like my sister. She's a special vet. She looks after scary snakes, even snakes that have just hatched from eggs. She says snakes are easy to look after, as they don't have any legs. My father is a scientist. He works to save rare birds. Some birds are clever, and can even say some words. My mother is a florist. She loves arranging flowers. Once, she arranged a bouquet for a famous actress. My brother is a farmer. He grows different kinds of vegetables. The vegetables are very good, and everyone buys from him. There are many jobs to choose from, but which one is right for me? Because I'm only seven years old, I'll have to wait and see!
