CONVERSATION

- What do you have in your hand?
- I have a bug.
- Let's pick up some acorns!
- Sounds fun!
- I touched a cactus and it hurt.
- Oh no, are you ok?
- You are covered in dirt. Were you playing in the park?
- Yes, I was, Mom.
- Look at the animals playing in the mud.
- Wow, it looks so much fun!
- Are forest animals scared of hunters?
- Yes, the animals hide from them in the bushes and tree branches.
- Are there any plants in the desert?
- Yes, we can find lots of cacti there!
How about sunflowers or roses?
- No, not at all.
- How was your dive?
- It was great, we picked lots of oysters, clams, and seaweed!
- Did you see any corals?
- Yes, we did.
- Are you feeling okay?
- I have a stomachache. Bacteria from that soil must have gotten into my body.
- Look, there's a fire. I can smell the smoke!
- Oh no, let's get away. We need to find clean air!

LISTENING CARD STORY

One day, Mia was playing by the river in a forest. She was running after butterflies and trying to catch them. She was very happy to see many colorful flowers. Then she saw a slug. It was crawling in the mud. After that, she saw many mushrooms of different shapes and colors. Mia was enjoying the beautiful environment around her. She said, "Nature is wonderful. Its beauty attracts everyone." She walked a bit and reached a bush of roses. She tried to pluck a rose, but a thorn pierced her finger. Mia started crying and ran to her house. When she got home, she explained to her mother what happened. Her mother said, "Flowers are meant to be seen and not plucked. Natural beauty should never be harmed." Mia said, "Thank you, Mom. Today I learned that we should protect all living things, whether they are animals or plants. Harming nature may harm human beings in the long run."
