LISTENING CARD STORY

One sunny day, Mia, Diego, and Emma were playing in a field of plants and flowers. Diego noticed a shiny stone by a lake. He ran to pick it up but fell over, scraped his knee and started to cry. Emma and Mia picked him up. As soon as he got up, he tried to reach again for the precious stone but he was startled by a jumping frog. Everyone started laughing as they tried to jump like the frog until they got tired and decided to go home. On their way home, they saw a big rainbow. They stayed by the road for a bit to look at it. It was so beautiful! When they got home, Diego told his mommy what happened. His mommy said, "Diego, we should take care of nature. You should not have tried to pick up the precious stone. It's like cutting branches from a tree or picking flowers to bring back home. We should leave nature as we find it. Diego said, "From now on I will."
